New Hanover County Public Library Meeting Policy

Introduction and Purpose
New Hanover County owns and operates many public meeting room facilities. Some of the meeting rooms are intended for County business only and other facilities can be used by the public for uses unrelated to New Hanover County business. This policy is designed to provide clarity and uniformity for New Hanover County meeting rooms and expectations for public use unrelated to New Hanover County business. Any meetings that are sponsored by New Hanover County or are opportunities for New Hanover County staff to provide communications and outreach about facilities and services provided are exempt from this policy.

Eligibility of Use
a. Meetings that are free and open to the public
b. Community groups with cultural, educational or civic emphasis under non-profit sponsorship; Governmental Agencies, municipal, state, and federal; for-profit organizations for purposes that align with the County’s mission.
c. New Hanover County resident or a valid library card that has borrowing privileges
